ISIS International School of Interdisciplinary Studies
Canada's First Integrated Arts Therapy Training Programme

Dear Applicant,

Thank you for your interest in Introduction to Expressive Arts.

Enclosed with this application is an information sheet about this 16-wk course. If you intend to apply for admission, please complete and return this application by regular post.

This is an ongoing application process, in which we accept applicants on a first-come-first-served basis. There is a $40.00 application fee; please enclose the cheque with the application.

Successful candidates will be notified by mail and given two weeks to send a written letter of acceptance along with a non-refundable deposit of $200.00. Upon confirmation of acceptance and full deposit payment, a place will be held for the candidate to begin the course in early October. The cost of the book on the reading list, Foundations of Expressive Arts Therapy: Theoretical and Clinical Perspectives is separate from tuition costs.

The ISIS Canada website has current and useful information for prospective students: www.isis-canada.org.

The ISIS office and Studio are not open to the public, unless we are hosting an event. Please call the office at (416) 539-9728 on Monday or Tuesday between 10:30 AM and 5:30 PM if you require more information about the course and/or financial assistance.

Sincerely Yours,

Pamela Rosales
